

Putting the 'me' in home

Supported Independent Living (SIL) at New Horizons

Living, your way

At New Horizons, we believe your home should feel safe, welcoming, and truly yours. Our Supported Independent Living (SIL) homes are designed to match independence with individual needs, helping you live life your way. It's all about your community, high quality care, and your own sense of self.

Whether it's a game of cards with mates, a safe space to paint, or a place to plant herbs, we're here to support the lifestyle you choose and the home you deserve.

About independent living

We specialise in NDIS Supported Independent Living (SIL) and Specialist Disability Accommodation (SDA) that goes beyond just housing. Whether you're looking for in-home supports, short-term accommodation, respite, or a new forever home, we have you covered.

- Supported Independent Living
- Shared housing
- Short and medium term accommodation
- In-home supports

What we'll take care of

-  All furniture and appliances in communal areas
-  Smart technology such as TV, solar, and house security
-  House vehicle to take you out and about
-  Personalised care and support to meet your individual needs
-  Management of household expenses from your board and lodging payments, including electricity, internet and groceries, so everything is taken care of for you
-  Finding your perfect housemate(s)
-  Continued support and handling of paperwork during reviews to maintain or increase your NDIS funding

Support that suits you

- Before you move in, we can provide practical information about our SIL and SDA application processes, and support you with the steps involved to help make the transition as smooth as possible
- The level of support you receive is totally up to you, whether it's 24-hour support or in-home care for continued independence
- Our inclusive services include lifestyle, exercise, wellness, health and nutrition, personal care, and help around the house
- We can liaise with your allied health specialists, occupational therapists or your GP to ensure your medical needs are aligned
- Additional medication intervention is sourced from known community pathways, GPs, emergency services, specialists, community nursing or the Department of Health
- There are on-call processes and proven emergency procedures for peace of mind

Our staff

- Qualified support workers, experienced in providing care from minimal to complex needs
- Long-term staff, with many transferring from Family and Community Services, provide a familiar face and maintain continuity of supports
- All risk-assessed roles engaged in SIL properties undergo a rigorous interview process, including NDIS Worker Check, Working with Children Check, and Australian Federal Police Check
- Our dedicated support centre coordinates service level and home agreements just for you
- Enrolled nurses are available for any high physical support requirements
- Before you move in, individual transition plans and staff training help provide a seamless transition

I love working with my clients. Seeing them happy because of something simple like their trains or their chickens, that's the best part of my job.
